

Fedora Week of Diversity 2021

Celebrating Fedora's diversity through storytelling

Jona Azizaj

Marie Nordin

Vipul Siddharth

Fedora Linux 35 Release Party

November 12th & 13th

Fedora Week of Diversity Planning

Working group formulation & starting steps

- Decision to move to Fedora Week of Diversity at Team Meetup in March 2021
- Call for interest in the Diversity & Inclusion team meetings/ mailing list
- Jona, Vipul, Ashlyn, Marie, Grayson, Onuralp made up the team for FWD 2021
- Video editing by Onuralp
- We decided to focus on:
 - Existing processes
 - Keeping a well defined and reasonable scope
 - Not adding to our collective virtual fatigue

Fedora Week of Diversity Goals

We explored a lot of options, chose a few

- We focused in on a couple goals:
 - Video series of “Fedora Stories”
 - DEI Recommended Resources page
 - Publish videos from Fedora Women’s Day 2020
 - Fedora Social Hour takeover
 - Logo/brand & badge
 - Promotion

Fedora Week of Diversity Engagement

Youtube (as of November 1st)

- Number of Fedora Stories videos: 22
- Total views on Fedora Stories series: 489 views
- Number of Fedora Women's Day 2020 videos: 16
- Total views on Fedora Women's Day 2020 series: 970 views

Twitter (as of November 1st)

- Number of tweets: 55
- Number of likes: 2045
- Number of retweets: 314
- Total comments: 16

Fedora Women's Day

What does Fedora Week of Diversity mean for Fedora Women's Day?

- Fedora Women's Day has been a long term success for the Fedora community
- Fedora Week of Diversity doesn't mean Fedora Women's Day is going away
 - Local Fedora Women's Day events can plan for November 2022
 - The working group for Fedora Week of Diversity 2022 could choose to do a Fedora Women's Day event

DEI Recommended Resources Page

A start of something awesome!

- Initialized a DEI Recommended Resources Page
 - Focused on keeping the content things people on the team have actually read and found useful
 - Looking for additions
 - This is a useful and easy way to contribute to Fedora's D&I team!

What's the plan
for 2022?

Thank you!
Any questions?

